DESCRIPTION OF THE EVENT:

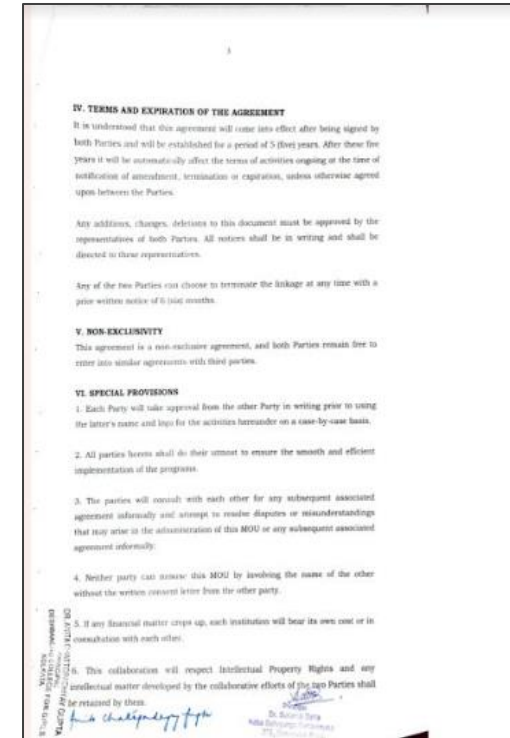

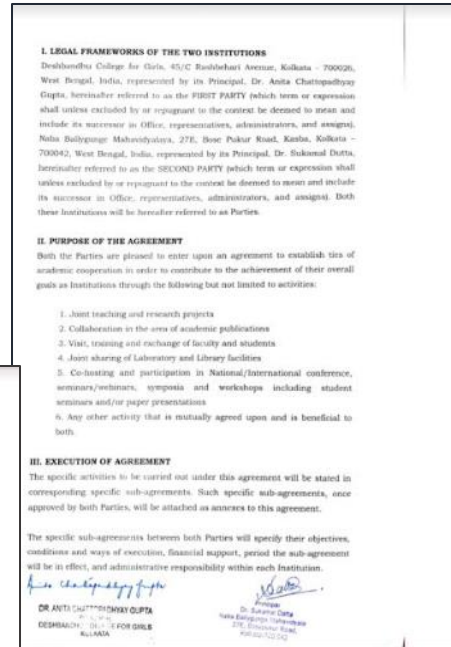

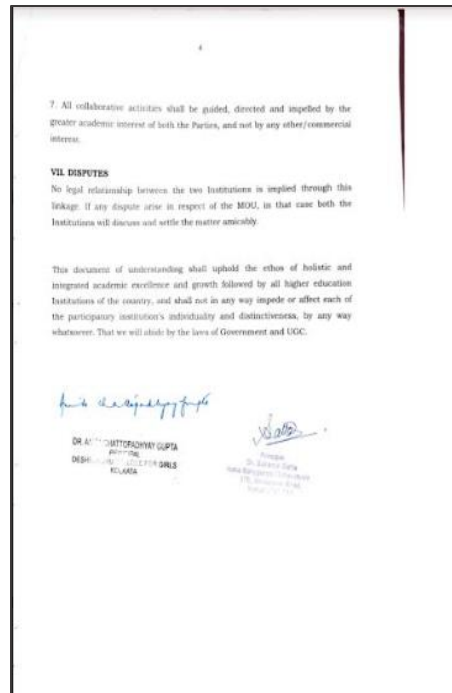

International Day against Drug Abuse and Illicit Trafficking, observed annually on June 26th, is a global event that raises awareness about the dangers of drug abuse and illicit trafficking. A poster competition was organized to encourage individuals to express their creativity and communicate the negative impacts of drug abuse on individuals, families, and communities. Participants were encouraged to create posters that highlighted the importance of prevention, treatment, rehabilitation, and enforcement efforts in combating drug abuse and illicit trafficking. The event provided a platform for individuals of all ages to use their artistic skills and creativity to advocate for a drug-free world and promote unity in the fight against substance abuse. The posters were judged based on their originality, creativity, visual impact, and effectiveness in conveying a powerful message against substance abuse.

Overall, the poster competition served as a visually compelling and educational tool to engage the community in discussions about the devastating effects of drug abuse and illicit drug trafficking, and to inspire action towards creating a healthier, safer, and drug-free world for all.

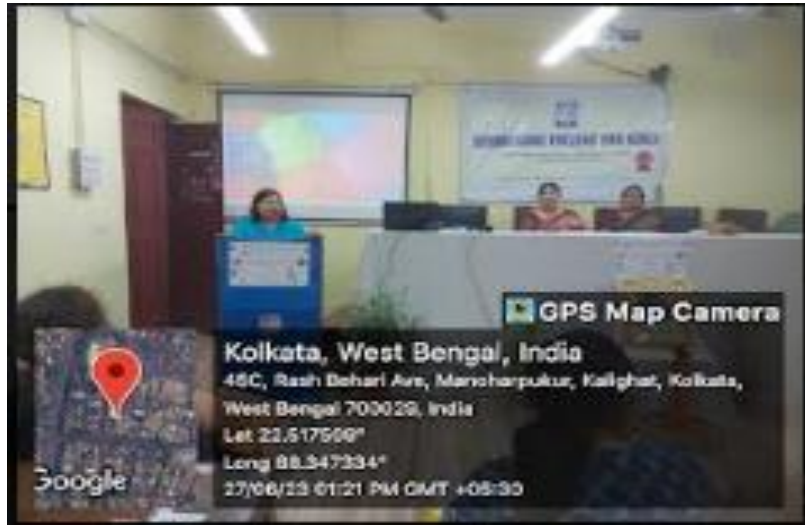

OUTCOM OF THHE REPORT :

The event showcased the creativity and passion of young college students who were dedicated to raising awareness about drug abuse and illicit trafficking. The college student participants demonstrated a strong understanding of the importance of addressing these issues, and their posters conveyed powerful messages about the dangers of drug abuse and the impact of illicit trafficking on society. The creativity and artistic skills displayed in their submissions played a crucial role in engaging audiences and sparking meaningful conversations about the need for prevention, treatment, and enforcement actions. The event not only provided a platform for college students to showcase their talents and advocate for positive change, but also encouraged them to be active participants in the fight against drug abuse and illicit trafficking. The posters created by these young individuals served as powerful tools for raising awareness and educating their peers and the community at large about the devastating consequences of substance abuse and illegal drug trade. Overall, the poster competition demonstrated the potential of youth engagement in addressing complex social issues.
